By His Excellency, Charles Ridgely, of Hampton, Esquire, Governor of Maryland,

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, it appeareth unto me by an Esquire, one of the Coroners of Baltimore county, that a most atrocious mur der was committed on the person of a certain William Henry M'Cubbin, a citizen of the city of Baltimore, by some unknown person, on or about the twen-ty second day of October last, which In quisition hath been returned to me ac-companied by a memorial of sundry respectable persons, inhabitants of the ci ty of Baltimore, praying the interposi-tion of Government: And whereas the quiet and security of the State depend on the vigilance of the constituted authorities in causing the laws against such enormities to be duly executed. I have therefore thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, and do by and with the advice and consent of the Council, offer a reward of Five Hundred Dollars to any person who shall discover the author or perpetrator of the aforesaid murder, provided he be brought to justice. Given under my hand and the seal of the State of Maryland this fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventeen.
